Steve Transeth is the principal partner of the Lansing law firm Transeth & Associates, PLLC which specializes in providing legal and consulting services in energy and utility law. He is a former member of the Michigan Public Service Commission (MPSC) and has 30 years experience dealing with energy and utility issues.

Mr. Transeth served as special counsel to the Chairman of the Michigan Senate Energy and Technology Committee for the 2016 energy legislation (2016 PA 341 & 342), was a member of the MPSC during the implementation of 2008 energy legislation (2008 PA 286 & 295) and was the lead legislative drafter for the 2000 energy legislation (2000 PA 141). He served as the Chairman of the Integrated Resource Planning Committee for the Lansing Board of Water and Light and has served on various national regulatory committees dealing with energy resources, transmission and regulatory ethics.

Mr. Transeth is the Editor of the weekly newsletter This Week in Energy News, a report that identifies and summarizes the important articles, reports, studies and news events that occurred the previous week involving energy issues.

For over twenty years Mr. Transeth served as Legal Counsel to the Michigan Legislature specializing in the areas of energy, technology, public utilities, and local government. Prior to his time with the Legislature, Mr. Transeth was with the Ingham County Prosecuting Attorney's office for six years and in private practice for four years. For twenty five years Mr. Transeth was an Adjunct Professor of Law at the WMU Thomas M. Cooley Law School and is a frequent speaker for the Institute of Public Utilities at Michigan State University.

Mr. Transeth holds a Bachelor and Masters degree from Michigan State University and a law degree from WMU Thomas M. Cooley Law School.
